Instructions

- There are a couple of cover page designs to choose from. Print these on colored paper and then laminate them for added durability. Alternatively, use cardstock. Personally I find laminated covers stand the test of time better.
- Choose the reading or sight word log sheet that you prefer. Print two copies and then use these to print multiple copies of two sided copies. I always do a trial run first so they are both facing the right way!
- Place 2-3 staples along the spine of the book. More heavy duty staplers are useful for this.
- Some of the logs have circles, these are designed to be for stamps or stickers.
